

TESTIMONIALS

"ACAP residency week exceeded my expectations with the amazing guest speakers and field trips! I had never considered accounting or business as careers I'd pursue. After ACAP, my perspective on accounting and business drastically changed."

"From start to finish...it was a motivating, self-improvement process that allows you to learn how to work with people in the accounting and business fields. ACAP teaches you how to get work done as a team and build strong relationships starting day one. I've been to many summer programs, but I've never been to one like this...there is no other program like ACAP."

"I made valuable connections both with these industry experts and my fellow ACAPers. I had so much fun getting a taste of dorm life, and I've made so many new friends from ACAP! I highly recommend ACAP to anyone that isn't 100% sure what they want to do after high school but is interested in accounting and/or business."

"I had no idea how impactful it would be...we met many speakers and had sessions on accounting and other business/life skills. It taught me immensely about the business field, college life, and pursuing a career...I have new friendships, knowledge, and most of all the satisfaction of knowing the career I want to pursue in the future."

GET INVOLVED

BE AN ACAP SPONSOR

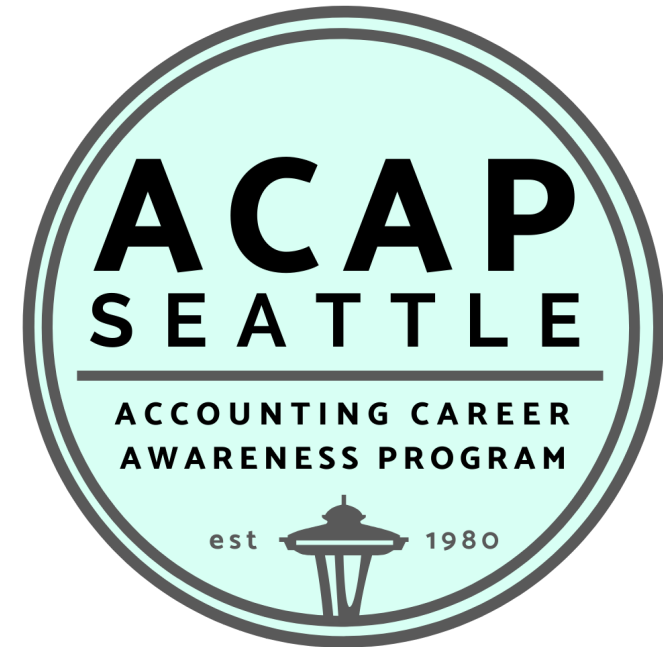

ACAP's institutional sponsors make our work possible, allowing ACAP to offer its programs free of charge. Sponsoring organizations and their employees also have opportunities to engage with ACAP throughout the year.

BE AN ACAP MENTOR

Mentorship is fundamental to the success of ACAP students. Accountant mentors enrich ACAP students, and themselves, through meaningful relationships that support students on their pathway into accounting.

BE AN ACAP SUPPORTER

Your gift to ACAP can change the life of young students of color. 100% of your donation supports student participation in our programs. ACAP is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. All gifts are tax-deductible. Show your support today by donating at www.seattleacap.org.

The University of Washington Foster School of Business: home to ACAP Seattle's Summer Residency Week Program

RESIDENCY WEEK

Each summer, ACAP's free signature Residency Week program brings high school students to the University of Washington's Foster School of Business for a week of learning, exploration, networking, and fun.

The free program introduces students to academic and career pathways into the accounting field. Participants live in dorms, explore campus, attend lectures, visit accounting firms, and build the knowledge, know-how, and valuable networks that will help them as they transition into college, and beyond.

Apply at www.seattleacap.org.

MENTORSHIP

All ACAP participants have the opportunity to be matched with a professional accountant mentor. Mentors act as cheerleaders and champions for ACAP students by providing advice, support, ideas, and connections that benefit students long after their program ends.

NETWORKING

ACAP participants develop extensive, valuable networks with like-minded students and accounting professionals.
